

*Remember:
We are all combinations of each style.*

DiSC Styles in meetings

D styles

- prefer minimal small talk and side chatter
- appreciate an agenda that everyone sticks to

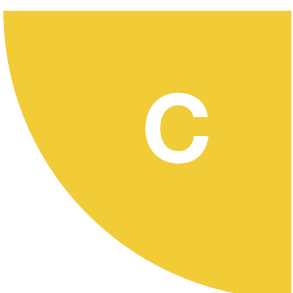

i styles

- flourish when given the opportunity to express personal opinions
- like to have open discussions with others

S styles

- feel comfortable when provided with an outline in advance
- prefer meetings where everyone has a chance to be heard

C styles

- don't respond well to making big decisions that feel rushed or pressured
- often need all the details before taking a stance